

Low Voltage Multi-function Earthing Kit

Developed by Hylec to meet the needs of Utility Customers faced with Solar Feed in whilst working within the Utility Network.

Multi-functions means connections to a variety of Low Voltage terminals used in IEC, BS and Australian NZ and Pacific Region.

Connections required the operator to tighten the earths connections and insert Din Blades in the correct orientation.

7KA / 1sec short circuit rating

Caution : Operators must always use their Company's safety instructions prior to applying or using these products . Always prove de-energised before connectings and always wear suitable PPE .

Multifunction LV Earths kits can be supplied with a variety of connection terminals to provide greater users flexibility . If you a special need please send a photo of the application your require.

Fault capacity is limited to security of connectors and cabling size.